

WOCG & GOTGT Celebrate National Hispanic Heritage Month

(September 15 - October 15)

Ms. Vasti Amaro, Girls On the Green Tee (GOTGT) Program Director, will kickoff the historic launch of the (GOTGT) Girls Golf & Mentoring Program during National Hispanic Heritage Month

September 15 to October 15, at Doris Ross Reddick Elementary in Wimauma, Florida. The Elementary school is located in a community that serves a multi-cultural society and will give these young girls, an opportunity and access to female role models in golf and business.

National Hispanic Heritage Month is a period from September 15 to October 15 in the United States for recognizing the contributions and influence of Hispanic Americans to the history, culture, and achievements of the United States.

Diversity still remains golf's biggest challenge. In order for golf to grow, it is programs like Women of Color Golf (WOCG) & Girls on the Green Tee (GOTGT), that are helping to open doors introducing minority girls to all aspects of the sport. The face of the game must change, to look more like the face of America. Ms. Vasti Amaro and her team, are dedicated to impacting the lives of these young girls, to improve their lives through the game of golf.
